

About the Presenter:

Dave Jensen has been a Staff Attorney with CAMFT since April 2002. Dave graduated from Brigham Young University with a Bachelor's Degree in History. He received his law degree from the Thomas Jefferson School of Law in San Diego, California. Before joining CAMFT, Jensen worked for Foley & Lardner, a large national law firm, where he regularly established and advised nonprofit organizations. As an attorney with CAMFT, Jensen consults with its members regarding their legal and ethical dilemmas, and is a regular contributor to The Therapist magazine. Jensen gives numerous law and ethics presentations to chapters, schools, and agencies, and his popular What Does the Law Expect of Me? series, which includes Parts I, II, III, and IV, have helped therapists to better understand their legal and ethical obligations.

Workshop Description

What Does the Law Expect of Me? Part II

Dave Jensen will review the ten things that the psychotherapy profession comes down to and the following subjects: the Psychotherapist and his or her relationship with the law; the rules pertaining to advertising; the rules pertaining to business entities therapists can use for their practices; patient access to records; the concept of unprofessional conduct; and, what makes a valid termination of the therapist-patient relationship different from an abandonment of such relationship.

Learning Objectives:

This workshop is designed to help you:

1. Identify the ten fundamentals of practicing legally, ethically, safely and confidently.
2. Describe the Psychotherapists relationship with the law.
3. Recognize and apply the legal rules as they pertain to advertising.
4. Recognize and apply the legal rules pertaining to business entities therapists can use for their practices.
5. Recognize the rules pertaining to patient access to records.
6. Recognize the differences between professional conduct and misconduct.
7. Assess what makes a valid termination of the therapist-patient relationship different from an abandonment of such relationship.
